

Eiffel 65, Brightly Shines

<lyrics>

You,
Use to hide behind a wall
The part of you nobody knows
No one ever saw it

And your flower deep down in the sea
Full of colours deep indeed
No one ever saw it before
No one ever saw it before
Your shine is leaving you alone

You,
Use to hide behind a wall
The part of you nobody knows
No one ever saw it

And your flower deep down in the sea
Full of colours deep indeed
No one ever saw it before
No one ever saw it before
Your shine is leaving you alone

Just put you trust in who you are
In who you are

Why can't you see it
There is a light
That brightly shines
Inside your head
There is a light
That brightly shines
That brightly shines
Inside yourself

Why can't you see it
There is a light
That brightly shines
Inside your head
There is a light
That brightly shines
That brightly shines
Inside yourself

You,
Use to hide behind a wall
The part of you nobody knows
No one ever saw it

And your flower deep down in the sea
Full of colours deep indeed
No one ever saw it before
No one ever saw it before
Your shine is leaving you alone

Just put you trust in who you are
In who you are

Why can't you see it
There is a light
That brightly shines
Inside your head
There is a light
That brightly shines

That brightly shines
Inside yourself

Why can't you see it
There is a light
That brightly shines
Inside your head
There is a light
That brightly shines
That brightly shines
Inside yourself

Why can't you see it
There is a light
That brightly shines
Inside your head
There is a light
That brightly shines
That brightly shines
Inside yourself

Why can't you see it
There is a light
That brightly shines
Inside your head
There is a light
That brightly shines
That brightly shines
Inside yourself
