

Eiffel 65, Crazy

<lyrics>
I'm going crazy

The colours I breathe
Are the colours I need
The people I see
Are just people like me, yeah
Because the things that I see
Are not chosen by me
The things that I see
Are the things on TV
coming back to me

The feelings I breathe
Are the feelings I need
The lives that I live
Are the ones on the screen, yeah
Because the things that I see
Are not chosen by me
The things that I see
Are the things on TV
Coming back to me

I'm going crazy
I am going crazy
Everybody's crazy
Everyone's a little crazy
I'm going crazy
I am going crazy
Everybody's crazy now
I'm going crazy
I am going crazy
Everybody's crazy
Everyone's a little crazy
I'm going crazy
I am going crazy
Everybody's crazy now

The colours I breathe
Are the colours I need
The people I see
Are just people like me, yeah
Because the things that I see
Are not chosen by me
The things that I see
Are the things on TV
coming back to me

The feelings I breathe
Are the feelings I need
The lives that I live
Are the ones on the screen, yeah
Because the things that I see
Are not chosen by me
The things that I see
Are the things on TV
Coming back to me

I'm going crazy
I am going crazy
Everybody's crazy
Everyone's a little crazy
I'm going crazy
I am going crazy

Everybody's crazy now, crazy
I'm going crazy
I am going crazy
Everybody's crazy
Everyone's a little crazy
I'm going crazy
I am going crazy
Everybody's crazy now

I'm going crazy

The colours I breathe
Are the colours I need
The people I see
Are just people like me, yeah
Because the things that I see
Are not chosen by me
The things that I see
Are the things on TV
