

Eight, Cost Of Everyone

Even after all this time
When the faces blend and/to look like mine
I can't believe we've come this far alone
(I'm) talking to myself again
Cos I'm the only one I can't offend
I still believe its time to go alone

It's the cost of everyone
To believe in someone
It's the cost of everyone
alone

Even after all this time
When the faces (blend and) look like mine
(I'm) talking to myself again, alone
