

Eight, Forgetting

When I, am trying to explain
(You) lose your self control forgetting

Aligned, forget the reasons why (so we) choose our own way home
Again

When I, am trying to explain/decide Trying again
all over again

You try to explain
You forget the reasons why
When you lose your self control Find yourself besides again...

The peace, it fits within your soul
You found your way
everyone's listening

Relax!, you're waiting for the end hanging again
AND THIS IS WHAT IT FEELS LIKE

You're weighed down by Everyone knows why
When grace finds/found you there
Everyone knows why
