Eighteen Visions, Lost In A Dream

I've been sleeping here for days Hope I die before my dreams drive me insane When you're not around I might let my guard down Don't keep me waiting

You can't understand my nightmares Bad dreams are all that I can keep

Locked in a room where all my dreams come true Scrape my mind off of the walls painted pretty blue Collective thoughts fill my brain But every night it's just the same Don't keep me waiting

You can't understand my nightmares Bad dreams are all that I can keep You can't understand my nightmares Don't you close your eyes to see (Blindness is overwhelming)

You can't understand my nightmares Bad dreams are all that I can keep You can't understand my nightmares Don't you close your eyes to see (Blindness is overwhelming)
