

Einsturzende Neubauten, Blume (English Version)

Chrysanthemum
For you I am a chrysanthemum Supernova, urgent star

Astera Compositae
For you I'll be a dandelion a thousand flowerettes in the sky Or just a drop in the ocean

If you know my name don't speak it out it holds a power - as before

Liliacea
A lily of the valley
a flower of saron

Helianthus annuus
For you I even be a sunflower Do you hear my enlightening laughter?
another reason to cut off an ear

You know my name, do you not?
don't say it
For it's a sacred, immovable - frozen

Rosa, Anemone et Nymphaea alba I'll even be a waterlily, a marygold, a rose or a little thistle

Euphorbia
a blue dahlia, a black tulip that's where opinions differ the scholars disagree

My name, should you know it remains unspeakable and it's spoken - malediction
