

Eisley, Sea King

At the bottom of the ocean lives a sea king, he was my king.
He was so proud, diamonds in his crown.
He was so proud, always so proud.

I'm going away, I can't stay and I pray he finds out someday...

Sea King, Sea king, can't you see that you're so silly?
Sea King, I know things, and without love you won't get far.

In aquatic towns below us, reigns a Sea King, he was my king.
Gold and glitter bubbling all around him, all around him, pearls in his hands.

I'm going away, I can't stay and I pray he finds out someday...

Sea King, Sea king, can't you see that you're so silly?
Sea King, I know things, and without love you won't get far.

It was all he ever knew and that's sad.
