

Ekolu, Honestly

I love you, I need you,
To hold me every night.
And when you're feeling lonely,
Girl I'll be by your side.

I'll tell you that I love you so,
I'll hold you and never let you go.
Girl tell me your love belongs to me,
And I love you honestly.

I want you to know that,
I'm always here for you.
Through your bad times, your saddest times
I'll help you see it through.

I'll comfort you when you're alone,
I'll give you love like you never know.
Girl tell me your love belongs to me,
And I love you honestly.

(Bridge)
There will be times,
When life will seem unfair,
But you can run to me
'Cause u know girl I will be there.

I'll comfort you when you're alone,
I'll give you love like you never know.
Girl tell me your love belongs to me,
And I love you honestly.

(x3 Until Fade)
And I love you honestly
