

Ekotren, Nothing Left

Time to take out the maker,
Who drives this down inside.
Time to make a believer.
Its time to open eyes.
There will be no more hiding from this.
Ive lost the will to fight.
I give in to this.
You see this pain inside.
Its on my face.
Its no surprise.
Theres nothing left but time.
Though my light has burned out.
Did you really think that I would forget this.
Did you really think that I would get used to this.
Time to take out the maker.
Time to make a believer.
I'm sick of hiding behind all these walls that you build up inside.
You see this pain inside.
Its on my face.
Its no surprise.
Though my light has burned out.
My light has burned out.
And I would sell my soul away.
Because my light has burned out.
And I would sell my soul to bring it back again.
Back again.
Theres no coming back.
Back again.
You see this pain inside.
Its on my face.
Its no surprise.
Though my light has burned out.
