

Ektomorf, Open Up Your Eyes

A ray of light in the night called
See what life is like
Only fear no pain
It burns I still feel it

An idea an idea
Swims on the ocean floor
My eyes are closed I'm alone
I have fears inside I'm burning

Look, how it flies
Throw my heart
It speaks from my soul
So listen to it

I don't want to fear and burn
In the fire that lies, so open up your eyes and
See how it burns it tears me apart
This shit consumes me

Look, it speaks to me
Speaks to me

A ray of light in the night called
See what life is like
I was born but now I see
Still I burn inside

An idea an idea
Swims on the ocean floor
Only tear there's no pain
Slowly slowly it passes away

Look, how it flies
Through my heart
It speaks from my soul
So listen to it

I don't want to fear and burn
In the fire that lies, so open up your eyes and
See how it burns it tears me apart
This shit consumes me

Look, god speaks to me
Speaks to me
See as it burns
See as it fears

It speaks to me
So open up your eyes and see
Don't just look
