

Eldritch, Cage Of Sins

My mind keeps on showing scenes I don't want to see dry tears of my soul did flow again and i'm sure the unwelcomed dawn will wake me sore cause i know that you can change your role no more who else's to blame? Can't hide this shame

CHORUS

Wounds can't recover when lovers lie
Rain is falling and fades a poem that was nice to write

Words are not enough to tell the pain i feel 'cause i know what you've done to kill our dream sentenced to live in the cage of sins

Wounds can't recover when lovers lie
Rain is falling and fades a poem that was nice to write

Leaves are falling while your eyes look as cold as ice
