

Electric Light Orchestra, From The End Of The World

Oh you, you're so hard to get to.
Oh you, you don't wanna play,
You were no better before,
I sent a letter before,
I sent a dream to you last night
From the end of the world.

Oh, you, you keep me hangin' 'round and 'round and 'round.
Oh you, look at the trouble I've found,
You were no better before, (O-Oh)
I sent a letter before, (Yeah Yeah)
I sent a dream to you last night
From the end of the world.

I saw you last night but you couldn't answer,
You were a lonely little sidewalk dancer,
(Oooooooooooooohhh)
When I woke up I could not stand it
You were gone but I got to hand it to you.

- Solo.
(O-Oh) (Yeah-Yeah)
(Dream to you last night from the end of the world)

Oh please if this is a game I wish someone would win.
Oh please just let it fly to be upon the wind,
You were better before, (O-Oh)
I sent a letter before, (Yeah Yeah)
I sent a dream to you baby last night
From the end of the world.
You were no better before, (O-Oh)
I sent a letter before, (Yeah Yeah)
I sent a dream to you baby last night
From then end of the world.

I sent a dream to you baby last night
From then end of the world.

I sent a dream to you baby last night
From then end of the world.

I sent a dream to you baby last night
From then end of the world.
