People heading for a dirty future
People lining up a party ball
People sucking on their computer
And other counters pay for it all
We were so in love, we were so in love
We were so in love, we were so in love
We were so in love, we were so in love
We were so in love, and we were ready to bite me!
Delight me
I paid handsomely for you to exite me
Your body is something I might not survive,
So bite me!
Bite me!

Come on and bite me!
Delight me
I paid handsomely for you to exite me
Your body is something I might not survive,
So bite me!
