

Electric Six, Graphic Designer

She's a nine to fiver Got evil up inside her
She's a, she's a graphic designer.
Nobody does it finer Photoshop entire simplification Messiah.
Crop and suicider(?)
Pen tones and nine-to-niner She's even redesigning China!
Taking bullshit higher,
running something by her
She's a, she's a graphic designer.

And she knows, her designs are neon graphic
And she goes, into work early to avoid traffic
And she don't need applause and she don't need crap(?)
and she don't need your feedback to know where it's at and she don't need no resume to get thru my door you better bring your A-game when you wage a war on designer
