

Electric Soft Parade, Stupid Mistake

There's a wind now, pulling people this way
It was my turn. A ticket out of here Could've been different should have been so perfect
I was so young but I'm much younger now

And what a stupid mistake
Said you could do it with your eyes closed Still you made a good time just listening to the bombs roll

I could be loving you now
I could be doing it with my eyes closed You could be back on your feet but that isn't how the song goes

Could've been different
should have been so perfect
I was so young
but I'm much younger now Did you think twice how to get out of this one Did you always never understand
