

Electric Soft Parade, There's A Silence

I sit on the edge
I'm scared to look down
I look away for a second
And I see you shut ourselves in

And are you aware
There's a rift between us
I can't think what it means
I only ask myself why is it there

And there's a silence
When you walk into the room
And I don't feel I'm in control
Oh no

I sit on the edge
I'm scared to look down
I look away for a second
And I see you shut ourselves in

And are you aware
Of this rift between us
Yeah I can't think what it means
I only ask myself why is it there

And there's a silence
When you walk into the room
And I don't feel I'm in control
No

And there's a silence
When you walk into the room
And I don't feel I'm in control
Oh no...
