

Electric Wizard, Return Trip

the sun burns in the stranger's eyes just one more tear before he dies black mass can't ease the pain there's nothing here, there's nothing sane i hope your fuckin' world fuckin' burns away i'd kill you all if i had my way but i'll live forever, questions curse me why oh lord above, why won't you let me die?
