

Electric Wizard, Supercoven

Black sun master
Under starless sky
Black stone alter
They pray to the sign
The old ones were
And they shall be again
Yog sothoth is the gate
Interplanetary alignment predicts their reign

Supercoven

Have awakened the ancient ones
Mindless slaves to the black god
Moan dark hymns to the sun
They watch from the sun
Since our lives had begun
They want us to be free
If only we could see
Yeah! Turn to the sun

SUPERCOVEN! (repeat until you are stoned)
