

Elefant, Don't Wait

I hear the voices
they are calling me
hey say los angeles died
disagree

hear her singing
up in the hills
we both did too much
hold me still

don't wait for me
don't wait for me
to catch the sunsets on the beach
don't wait for me

the desert sleeps beside with open arms
the storm is getting close the signal's lost

the spanish kids are dancing with plastic guns
the city has a new sound
it's calling us

and it started to rain

we walk on the stars, we walk on the stars, we walk on the stars don't wait for me (to catch the sunsets) don't wait for me (to watch the moonlight)
