

Elegant Machinery, Blind Man Dreams

A fading memory turns to dust twisted shadows says he must the room is closing in stares at the dark
A broken vision splits his eyes he stumbles blindfold when he cries he wants to pay his toll but dont know how Blind man dreams
whispering your name
anwer if he calls
Blind man dreams
wipe his teardrops
catch him if he falls Trying hard to see through your eyes it blures his vision when he tries no one to hold on to while sleeping tight Absentminded when he speeks his tainted body feels so week he dozes off again
and starts to dream
Blind man dreams
whispering your name
answer if he calls
Blind man dreams
wipe his teardrops
catch him if he falls
