

Elemeno P, I Don't Know

would you still love me if we lived in the same country and i wouldn't feel so alone if you had a telephone for you, to call, me on or go, online, and know, you're fine i really want to talk to you already been to long so i wrote you a fast pop song chorus

give me something that i can own just one more reason to be alone i lost you secrets long ago well i dont know, well i dont know
give me something that i can own
i lost you'r secrets long ago

university/mediocrity to me next year i dont want to wear a suit though im sure it would suit you we could, both get, a job, work for, the man or get a dog nine to five i dont really want on an average wage all for two weeks holiday

(give, give..)

chorus x3
give, please give, give give..)
