

Elemeno P, Life's Not Fair

Baby, I see you coming undone
I can see you start to wonder
Can see it slipping under the rug
Complications that are hard to Understand
The future slipping out of our hands
Such promises we've heard em all
Before yeah yeah

So say, I'll carry on
So say, I'll keep holding on its o.k.
To say I've seen better days
So take your time

Life's not fair
But I'll take it
For those that aren't here
We'll make it
Life is not fair but things are
Getting better
So for you, I'll leave the light on

Lady, I've seen better days than
This one
Spent summer nights with love ones
So swiftly over not forgotten
Memories
I'd given up, I've held you up and
You for me
Found a way to see the hope in
Tragedy yeah yeah

So say, I'll carry on
So say, I'll keep holding on its o.k.
To say I've seen better days
So take your time

Life's not fair
But I'll take it
For those that aren't here
We'll make it
Life is not fair but things are
Getting better
If you let her take you there it
Better, and on you I'll keep an eye on

Life's not fair
But I'll take it
For those that aren't here
We'll make it
Life is not fair but things are
Getting better

If you let her take you there
Better, and on you I'll keep an eye on Better, it's a shame to see you crying
Yeah yeah
