

Element 101, Jersey Never Seemed So Long

It took three hours just to drive down to the shore, New Jersey seemed so long I couldn't wait anymore, those were the best times that I've had all year, seemed like it took forever but we finally got there it was a long time before I got all of my friends in the water, but this time when memories are made I won't let it pass me by I love the sunshine, I'm going to make this day mine and when the day had grown so dark we ventured on a moonlit walk, after we had gone on all the rides I saw the starlight in your eyes the moon's so big and bright, this is the place to be tonight
