

Element Of Crime, Don't You Smile

You had to get rid of your cat
As you said because of lack of food
You ain't got even money for that
You must be in a very strange mood

You fucked up your life
You fucked up your life
Your life is a mess
And I wonder why
You sit there and amile
Why do you smile?

Why did you show me your flat?
To think of it gives me the creeps
It's as dark as an asshole by night
It's so damp and cold it makes me sad

You've always been a very smart child
We always had a lot of plans
We always thought you'd make it in life
Why don't you even wash your hands

You fucked up your life
You fncked up your life
Your life is a mess
And I wonder why
You sit there and smile
Why do you smile?
Please
Don't you smile!
Please
Don't you smile!
