

Elena, The Balkan Girls

Its time for me to unwind

Im gonna start my weekend with gin tonic and lime.

My girls take me for a ride , ready to party and looking so fine.

I wonder if beyond this , there could be something better.

Cause I feel so good tonight, dont wanna end this night.

Chorus

The Balkan girls they like to party like nobody , like nobody,
For crowd delight , well shine all night.

The Balkan girls they like to party like nobody , like nobody,
For crowd delight , well shine all night.

My hips are ready to glow,

This record is so hot and I have so much to show.

Ill find a boy for a kiss.

Who knows maybe hell be my prince.

I wonder if beyond this , there could be something better.

Cause I feel so good tonight, dont wanna end this night.

Chorus

The Balkan girls they like to party like nobody , like nobody,
For crowd delight , well shine all night.

The Balkan girls they like to party like nobody , like nobody,
For crowd delight , well shine all night.

(You got to live your life)

If you didnt find out what love is about.

And if youre lonely baby.

Just open your mind , youre one of a kind,

You got to live your life.

Chorus

The Balkan girls they like to party like nobody , like nobody,
For crowd delight , well shine all night.

The Balkan girls they like to party like nobody , like nobody,
Well shine all night.
