

Eleni Mandell, Just a Dream

you kissed me in the sun in the blazing afternoon they were busy on the streets we were lazy, we were cool oh no, that was just a dream that I had oh no, it didn't happen like that you kissed me on the lips we had lingered after dark were walking in the puddles making footprints on the sidewalk oh no, that was just a dream that I had

one man, so dark, so sad it didn't happen at all you kissed me on the mouth we had lost our space and time sitting on my gold couch all our fingers entwined whoa whoa whoa no, that was just a dream that I had oh, oh no

oh yeah

you kissed me windy day with the grasses long and dry we were swinging on the gate you saw fire, so did I
oh no, that was just a dream that I had
