

Elenium, Under the Mug

(Lyrics by J.)
(Music by Elenium)

Been looking for something
Been here before
Had to search the light
Never found the darkness
Been here before

Tried to listen
For the sake of hearing
To catch a glimpse
To see it disappear

Been back, been gone
Been the one and only
For far too long

I can laugh and live
And prepare to die
I can swallow my love
And for once spit it out
Goodbye
