

Elis, My Only Love

I'm a lonely stranger
In this world of pain

In my darkest hour
I'm alone
Why did you leave me

But one day
I will find you
My heart and soul
My only love

Wandering through the fields
Of disease
Can you hear me calling

Searching for a heart
Which heals my wounds

I'm not going to lose
My faith in love
Just because you left me

But one day
I will find you
My heart and soul
My only love
