

Elisa, A Little Over Zero

What shall I do, just to feel
A little over zero, a little over
Now that I'm sadness
Now that I'm weakness
Gonna walk like it's for ever
Gonna walk because it would save me
And my fragility could kill me
Is this the best I can be?
Is this the best I can give?
'Cause I wanna break out and
just live my life
I wanna wake up and
find out I'm alive
A saint for each bone
Would be magical
It would feel so all consuming
That I burn out just like paper
And my serenity it will kill me, so?
Is this the best I can be ?
Is this the best I can give
'Cause I wanna break out and
just live my life
I wanna wake up and
find out I'm alive
I wanna break out and just live my life
I wanna wake up and
find out I'm alive
Is this the best I can be?
Is this the best I can give
Is this the best I can give to you?
