

Elisa, It Is What It Is

Then comes the sun ...
then comes the sun ...
I'm packing my stuff
crying 'cause he's gone
I'm not gonna see any of you there I'm gonna go so far I have to be faster maybe I'll get there before the pain won't leave anything won't take anything
only a story to tell one day
It can't be too hard I keep telling myself
while the ground's missing what's coming after?
It is what it is
I just need to see you
'n hold you
'n cry with you
'n be with you
I was afraid of too many things but dying to prove I was strong enough to make my own way to make it myself
to keep my head up
be the one who helps but it's got me crying
it's got me crawling I'm so grateful 'cause it's got me knowing it beats with my heart
the love that we made shines through my eyes
it's out of the maze
Then comes the sun ...
It is what it is
I just need to see you
'n cry with you
'n be with you
Summer gone
air getting colder
I wished that I was one of those leaves carried by wind naturally dying never drank water
never touched fire
but it got me thinking it got me going can't be a leaf because I am woman ... I am woman
It is what it is
Then comes the sun ...
then comes the sun ...
