

Elisa Peimer, Don't Come Around

You don't hold my hand
And you don't stroke my head
But I found you this morning
Entangled in my bed

You don't say you love me
And you never will
But I keep drinking you down
Like some addictive pill

Don't come around
I just need to keep my feet
On solid ground
You just need to keep your distance
I don't need your damn persistence
Put your promises down
And walk away

I was in your arms
Whispered in your ear
But hardly more than moments
Before you disappear

I don't know your heart
And I can't read your mind
But tell me when you come here
What do you expect to find

Don't come around
I just need to keep my feet
On solid ground
You just need to keep your distance
I don't need your damn persistence
Put your promises down
And walk away

Out of my hands
I don't believe
Anything you tell me anymore
I knew it would be hard to achieve
But I don't want to take this anymore

Don't come around
I just need to keep my feet
On solid ground
You just need to keep your distance
I don't need your damn persistence
Put your promises down
And walk away
Walk away
Walk away
