

Elisa Peimer, Fallen

You know I've tried to be good all my life
But sometimes complications can arise
And I never thought it'd come to this
My world has turned around with just one kiss

You know I think about it every night
And I keep hoping I can make it right
Still I'm standing at the water's edge
Still I take the first step off this ledge

Fallen in love
Fallen from grace
Looking for the sunlight
In the darkest place
And I run
And I crawl
But I am Lucifer
And I fall

You know that nothing's ever black and white
Or do I justify to make it right
I used to believe I knew it all
But that was long before I took this fall

Fallen in love
Fallen from grace
Looking for the sunlight
In the darkest place
And I run
And I crawl
But I am Lucifer
And I fall

And though I know
This love affair will break me
I think it's gonna take me
Somewhere I wanna go

But I will try
To break the ties that bind me
And leave this all behind me
And come up from below

Fallen in love
Fallen from grace
Looking for the sunlight
In the darkest place
And I run
And I crawl
But I am Lucifer
And I fall
I fall
