

Elisa, Stranger (Lotus Version)

Stranger you look so different some other thoughts fill up your mind and you made it all happen got me thinking of you in my life and now, I hope that my wish is not too weak I hope that my will is enough, enough

'cause you made it all good for me you made it all right
you made it all good for me and just fine

Stranger can you forgive me if it sounds like I know you so well? it's just that you... you have been like water when I was feeling so thirsty and now, I think of you though you don't know the reason why I love you so but never mind

'cause you made me it all good for me, yeah
you made it all right
and just fine (just fine) just fine

(but I know) that I know it'd be too much to wait for your love it'd be sad to wait for anything your anything so I sing sing the words that I would say to you I sing the time that I would spend with you and only with you just 'cause you made it all good for me (for me) you made it all right for me

you made it just fine (fine) and how could I feel better?

How could I feel higher?
How could I feel happier (happier)

Stranger you.. you look so different some other thoughts fill up my mind now you made it all happen got me thinking about.. you...
