

Ella Fitzgerald, A-Tisket, A-Tasket

I'm in love with you
And all that jazz
You're my dream come true
And all that jazz
Baby, you're too much
You've got the skin I love to touch
The skin I love to touch too much, mmm
And all that jazz
You have got the lips that suit my taste
And your fingertips can't be replaced
Oh, baby, what you've got, nobody has
And I've got you
And all that jazz
(Improvisation)
I said I'm in love with you
And all that jazz
You're my dream come true
And all that jazz
Baby, you're too much
You've got the skin I love to touch
The skin I love to touch too much, mmm
And all that jazz
You have got the lips that suit my taste
And your fingertips can't be replaced
And I've got you
And all that jazz
