

Ella Fitzgerald And Joe Pass, Girl Talk

Meow, meow

Meow, meow

We like to chat about the dresses they will wear tonight

We chew the fact about our tresses and the neighbors' fight

Inconsequential things that men don't really care, no

Become essential things that women find so (?)

But that's a dame

We're all the same

It's just a game

They call it girl talk

Girl talk

We all me-ow about the ups and downs of all our friends

The who , the how or why

We dish the dirty linens

The weaker sex

The sleeker sex

You maul the males behold

But though we joke

We wouldn't trade you for a ton of gold

It is all about

So take a hand

Please understand

The sweetest girl talk

Thought of you
