

Ella Fitzgerald, I Can't Stop Loving You

You came to me one weary day
I was feeling blue
Then you gave your heart to me
Now I can't stop loving you

You are all mine and you're too divine
I know you love me too
That's what makes me like I am, oh
Now I can't stop loving you

When I gaze into your eyes
I gaze into paradise
I adore you, worship before you
Now I realize

That you are a find for this heart of mine
No more will I be blue
Cause you gave your heart to me, oh
Now I can't stop loving you
