Ella Fitzgerald, Let's Take A Walk Around The Blo

I never traveled further North than old Van Courtland Park and never further South than the aquarium I've seen the charm of Jersey City, but first let me remark I saw it from the empire state solarium

But we've been putting nickels in the postal savings bank and when those nickels pile up, we can toddle off in swank and I don't mean an ordinary cook's tour I mean a cabin de-luxe tour

Someday we'll go places New lands and new faces The day we quit punching the clock The future looks pleasant, But at present Let's take a walk around the block.

You're just the companion I want at Grand Canyon for throwing old blades down the rock The money we have`ll go for travel Meantime, let's walk around the block.

Gangway, we'll begin When our, ship comes in I'll sit on your lap All over the map

To London in May time
To Venice in play time
To Paris in time for a frock
To Boston in bean time
Darling, meantime
Let's take a walk around the block.

[Bridge]

In Winter at Christmas, We'll visit the isthmus And see how they lock up a lock And then in Caracas, on a jackass, We'll take a ride around the block.

We'll keep to our promise, To visit St. Thomas And then at Jamaica we'll dock The prospect is thrilling, Still I am willing, Just now to talk around the block.

Onward, to Cathay Then to Mandalay Boom on to Bangkok P'r'aps Vladivostok

We'll send the folks cables Accumulate labels Buy souvenirs till we're in hock But since we are flat in old Manhattan Let's take a walk around the block.
