Ella, I Need Your Love

I can't wait to be in your loving arms again I've been dreaming of Sky with no clouds, just happy days All i need it was somebody To feel, to feel my love Since the day my life has started I searched for love

In love again, you're always on my mind I musing you are mine Dream and deny In love again, your love is hard to find I'm lucky that you're mine Feeling so right

I need your love yeah I need your love I need your love yeah I need your love
