

Ella Mai, How (ft. Roddy Ricch)

(How?
How could you turn?
How could you switch up on me in my darkest hour?
How could you?)

What's the worst can happen?
Rolling with myself
I got too attached
Now I'm working on my health
Wanna be a savage
Thinking 'bout yourself
I had to attack
Had to leave you on the shelf, oh well

Face facts, for you I lost my head
Face that, it's cool, we go again
Can't let these heartless broken boys win
I'm back, I'm on my shit again
Back to business, caught my fuel again
You out so I can let me back in

Now I'm, I'm in my ride
It's me, myself and time
That's what it takes to break a heartache
I'm, I'm just gon' drive
Just me, myself and time
Before I lose my whole mind thinking

How?
How could you turn?
How could you switch up on me in my darkest hour?
How could you, how?
How could you turn?
How could you switch it up on me? Yeah
Switch it up on me, yeah

What's the worst can happen?
Rolling with myself
I got too attached
Now I'm working on my health
Wanna be a savage
Thinking 'bout yourself
I had to attack
Had to leave you on the shelf, oh well

How you switch up on a nigga?
I thought you would never leave
I know you hear my voice everywhere you be
Cold case, I had to give lil' shawty back to the streets
Had to slide out to Maui, I'll be back in two weeks
And it ain't no turning back, had to put her on the shelf
I can't buy a hundred bags, gotta be loyal by yourself
And I can't reward disrespect, you know
Never give up soul ties, I'd rather have a hundred hoes
I thought that you vowed to be a roller
You had the big champion, now it's game over
Still outside, still keeping my composure
Still getting wired, still kill it till it's over

Now I'm, I'm in my ride
It's me, myself and time
That's what it takes to break a heartache
I'm, I'm just gon' drive
Just me, myself and time

Before I lose my whole mind thinking

How?

How could you turn?

How could you switch up on me in my darkest hour?

How could you, how?

How could you turn?

How could you switch it up on me? Yeah

Switch it up on me, yeah

What's the worst can happen?

Rolling with myself

I got too attached

Now I'm working on my health

Wanna be a savage

Thinking 'bout yourself

I had to attack

Had to leave you on the shelf, oh well

My bad for putting my all in

Don't gimme back what you've stolen

How you acted then

It's embarrassing

Had to cap it

What's the worst can happen?

Rolling with myself

I got too attached

Now I'm working on my health

Wanna be a savage

Thinking 'bout yourself

I had to attack

Had to leave you on the shelf, oh well
