

Ella Mai, Leave You Alone

I don't know why I do this Same ol' drug just a new fix
Too good got me clueless
Guess I really can't blame it on cupid
Don't ask me what I'm doing
Its only gonna make me wanna do things
Shoulda left you on read
I blew it
I'm stupid

'Cause every time you say you wanna chill
I end up naked
Could it be the pain and the pleasure that you're making
Make me act a fool for ya
Fool in love
I drown in us
All over you baby
All over you baby

I just, can't stop
Falling, for you
You a bad one baby
Make this good girl crazy
I just, can't stop
Falling, for you
Such a fucking lady
Make this good girl crazy
I can't leave you alone
Baby I can't leave you alone

I don't know how we got here
Don't look me in the eyes when you stare
Too good, make me lose it
Got me calling out your name, never muted
I be hoping that it's more than just my body that you wanted
Shoulda left you on read
I blew it
So stupid

'Cause every time you say you wanna chill
I end up naked
Could it be the pain and the pleasure that you're making
Make me act a fool for ya
Fool in love
I drown in us
All over you baby
All over you baby

I just, can't stop
Falling, for you
You a bad one baby
Make this good girl crazy
I just, can't stop
Falling, for you
Such a fucking lady

If this is bad for me
I probably shouldn't stay
Don't ever let me go
I just wanna feel ya
Nice and slow
I'm caught up in the moment
Does it show?

I just, can't stop
Falling, for you
You a bad one baby
Make this good girl crazy
I just, can't stop
Falling, for you
Such a fucking lady
I can't leave you alone
