

Ella Mai, Shot Clock

24 seconds
yeah you better non stop
you got 24 seconds
can you beat the shot clock?
whatchu waiting in lil daddy I ain't got that much time you seem anxious
you seem adamant
but you ain't pressed my line

wondering why why why
know you ain't shy shy shy I am say bye bye bye but I know I won't think twice better let go of your pride do it now
just do it now, now

when that nigga pull up on me
tell that nigga back, back
don't you know all of these niggas
wish that they could bag that I am just sayin'
boy you playing
you gone let it wind down
and it starting right now
shot lock

don't sleep
don't sleep
you gon; miss your opportunity
shot lock
don't sleep
don't sleep
shot lock
don't sleep
shot lock
don't sleep
shot lock

5 years of dating tired of being patient what the fuck you waiting for?

it's a lot of niggas hating and I don't entertain 'em
but damn you
gotta give me more

I know, I know
I am really trying, but if you don't want to like me

I could think about a hundred things I could be doing right that wasting my time with you

ok, ok

since you gotta have it your way I 'ma start that clock on ya hen you gone see what's up

shot lock

don't sleep
shot lock
don't sleep
shot lock
don't sleep
shot lock
don't sleep
shot lock
