

Elle King, Try Jesus

I met a guy outside Bozeman
He liked drinkin' and smokin'
It was fun 'til he asked if we could keep things open

And there was one in LA
He had his head screwed on straight
Til I found out he was married and had one on the way

Mama's been praying
I'd do some changing
After all this heartbreakin'
It's finally got me thinkin'

I should try Jesus
See what all the fuss is about
Thinkin' I should try Jesus
Cause every other man let me down
Got me singin' "Hey Hallelujah, A-freakin'-men"
Baby, I don't need me anybody but him

And there was one in Miami
He took me home to his family
You know he swore he was different
But I ain't met one that isn't

This way I've been living
I might need some forgiving
Thinking, Sunday morning
I need a brand new beginning

I'm gonna try Jesus
See what all the fuss is about
Thinkin' I should try Jesus
Cause every other man let me down
Got me singin' "Hey Hallelujah, A-freakin'-men"
Baby, I don't need me anybody but him

(Try Jesus)

Lord, let your light shine down (Try Jesus)
Come and turn my life around
No one else is workin' out (Try Jesus)
I could use a miracle right about now

I'm gonna try Jesus
See what all the fuss is about
Thinkin' I should try Jesus
Cause every other man let me down
Got me singin' "Hey Hallelujah, A-freakin'-men"
Baby, I don't need me anybody but him

(Thinkin' I should try Jesus)
