

Ellen Allien, Leave Me Alone

A valley of ice, I see
The fire is close, but far to reach
The sun is rare
And the moon is green
On Mars I wanna be, surprises for the brain
Too many choices, you got
Keep my eyes on you, but no time
Too many messages
On my phone
Leave me alone
Leave me alone
So hard to decide
If your light burns bright
Just a moment of peace
The white spot in the black
It's gonna be cold
Leaving
A valley of ice
A valley of ice
