

Ellen Foley, Come To Me

Come to me when her lies have broken love down
Come to me when your heart is no longer bound
Come to me and know you'll never be lonely
If you'll only
Come to me
Take these dreams of mine and make them come true
Take my word no one can love you more than I do
Take my hand and know you'll never be lonely
If you'll only
Come to me
Come to me
Careless love is at best unfair
Heartache lies in wait for you there
Come to me
When the truth finally opens your eyes
When her touch can't make up for the lies
Come to me
Come to me
Come to me when your tears have no place to fall
Come to me when you're there with no reason at all
Don't hold on to the one who's making you lonely
You need only
Come to me
Oh come to me
Careless love is at best unfair
Heartache lies in wait for you there
Come to me
When the truth finally opens your eyes
When her touch can't make up for the lies
Come to me
Come to me
Come to me when your tears have no place to fall
Come to me when you're there with no reason at all
Why hold on to the one who's making you lonely
You need only
Come to me
Come to me
Come to me
