Ellie Goulding, Love I'm Given

I'm alive
I know my heart is beating
But my heads in the sky
I faoud a different meaning
Since you came in my life

Now all of time is standing still
Shining so bright
Deer in headlights
I know i did wrong
I used to think that i was so invincible
I tore myslef to pieces
Had to put on a show
You put me back together
And it feels liek home
If feels like home

And i am trying to make the most of my mistakes If you were me i wont you;d do the same thing Some things in my past i cannot change But i can change

And maybe i am playing For the things i've done And maybe i am playing For the ones i've hurt
