Elliott Smith, Ballad Of Big Nothing

Throwing candy out to the crowd, dragging down the main The helpless little thing with the dirty mouth who's always got something to say You're sitting around at home now waiting for your brother to call I saw him down in the alley, having had enough of it all

Said you can do what you want to whenever you want to You can do what you want to, there's no one to stop you

All spit and spite, you're up all night and down every day A tired man with only hours to go just waiting to be taken away Getting into the back of a car for candy from some stranger Watching the parade with pinpoint eyes full of smoldering anger

You can do what you want to whenever you want to You can do what you want to, there's no one to stop you Now you can do what you want to whenever you want to Do what you want to whenever you want to Do what you want to whenever you want to though it doesn't mean a thing Big nothing
