Elliott Smith, Everything's Ok

Everything's okay
Walks along the dock
With some sailor's pay
Shoved down in his sock
Everything's okay
With some little boy in blue
Who don't know you like I do

Everything's okay
Took him back to town
Well, I didn't get paid today
So I'm in the lost and found
And I wonder if that clown
Knows just what to do
What to say and what not to

The pretty words that you whispered Maybe I misunderstood Somebody's not paying attention What they promised and their word isn't good

Everything's okay I'm looking for you now Down here by the bay Where the water pounds Up against the wall That I'm coming to Because I can't stay away from you

I don't need no satisfaction And I don't take just because I can Sometimes I get a strong impression That you just don't understand That kind of man

Everything's okay I can see your face Don't there in the waves Painted and erased But I'm told it's just The reflection of the moon A big fake resembling you

I'm going to go down in the water And fill my mouth up full of sand And I'll be waiting still impatient With my dead imagination While you're with some other man

Everything's okay
I'll be with you soon
I'm walking out to place
My arms around the moon
Yeah, I'll be with you soon
Just as I'm paid
I'll walk across the water
Everything's okay
Walk on the water
Everything's okay
