

ELO, Bluebird

The streets, the signs are pointing all one way
But you don't realise just what they say
You may fight (you may fight), you may run (you may run),
You may know (you may know) what you've done (what you've done)
Ah, It makes me feel so sad (makes me feel so sad)
To think what I might've had (what I might've had)
I watch the stars (I watch the stars),
I watch the sun (I watch the sun), now I watch for anyone
But it's only make believe.

You work (work, work, work),
You work, you work so hard, and then (work, work, work, work)
Someone, someone will come around again (work, work, work, work, work, work, work, work, work)
You may think (you may think) it's for real (it's for real),
But you know (but you know) how you feel (how you feel)
The places that I go (places that I go)
Don't feel good anymore (don't feel good anymore)
I see it all rainbows in fall, I see her face upon my wall
But it's only make believe.

Fly away, bluebird, fly away for me
To a place somewhere far across the sea
Fly away (fly away), far away (far away),
Don't look back (don't look back), go today (go today)
The waves that crash upon the sand (crash upon the sand)
Another place, a far-off land (places far-off land)
And every day (and every day) I have to stay (I have to stay)
But you are free, you could fly away (fly away),
But it's only make believe.

Ooh (work, work, work, work, work, work, work, work)
Ooh (work, work, work, work, work, work, work, work)

Bluebird, bluebird, fly away for me
(Work, work, work, work, work, work, work, work).

Bluebird, bluebird, fly away
(Work, work, work, work, work, work, work, work).

Bluebird, bluebird, fly away for me
(Bluebird, bluebird, bluebird, bluebird)

Bluebird, bluebird, fly away
(Bluebird, bluebird, bluebird, bluebird).

Bluebird, fly away, away, away
(Bluebird, bluebird, bluebird).

A bluebird, bluebird, fly away for me
(Bluebird, bluebird, bluebird)...
