

ELO, Shangri-La

Sitting here, waiting for
Someone calling at my door
Too bad,
I'm getting out of love.

What's the use of changing things?
Wonder what tomorrow brings
Who knows?
I'm getting out of love.

My Shangri-La has gone away
Fading like The Beatles on "Hey Jude"
She seemed to drift out on the rain
That came in somewhere softly from the blue.

Clouds roll by and hide the sun
Raindrops falling on everyone
So sad,
I'm getting out of love.

My Shangri-La has gone away
Fading like The Beatles on "Hey Jude"
She seemed to drift out on the rain
That came in somewhere softly from the blue.

My Shangri-La has gone away
Fading like The Beatles on "Hey Jude"
She seemed to drift out on the rain
That came in somewhere softly from the blue.

I'm getting out of love
Where is my Shangri-La?
Where is my Shangri-La?
I'm getting out of love

I will return
I will return to Shangri-La...
