

Eloy, Seeds Of Creation

I've spent my life in darkness blind enslaved on the factory floor and now a new sensation lost at sea I can see the shore

I'm seeing trees growing
I'm hearing birds singing
I'm feeling rain falling

spring is coming

winters on the run

Each drop of rain's a heart beat bringing life to this barren ground with nature's cycle turning seeds of creation all around

I'm seeing trees growing
I'm hearing birds singing

spring is coming

stand up, stand up, face a world full of light

stand up, stand up, it's the end of the night

I feel, I feel, the rays of the sun

I feel, I feel, winter on the run

stand up, stand up, face a world full of light

stand up, stand up, it's the end of the night

I feel, I feel, the rays of the sun

I feel, I feel, winter on the run
